

LIVEWORKCANCER IS HERE TO SUPPORT YOU

Take control of your work and career during & after cancer.

Every cancer and work situation is unique. Our coaching, peer networks and information forums help you navigate the impact of cancer on your work, professional development and career — in a way that reflects what matters most to you.

1 · COACHING

Work & career cancer coach

An internationally certified coach works one-to-one with you to navigate the impact of cancer on your working life. Sessions are tailored to your specific goals and aspirations — helping you maintain or regain control.

“Coaching and shared cancer experience helped me keep perspective through a difficult return to work. Truly inspiring.”

ONE-ON-ONE SUPPORT

Up to 3 free 45-minute sessions.
Additional sessions available for a fee.

2 · PEER NETWORK

Work–Cancer Network Groups

Safe, caring and confidential groups for people working through cancer. Share experiences, gather information, and offer and receive support — research confirms this significantly enhances quality of life and emotional well-being.

“A positive, compassionate space to share experiences at any stage of the cancer journey. I only wish I’d found it sooner.”

PARTICIPANT

GROUPS & CADENCE

Free monthly 1-hour sessions. Max 12 per session, at lunchtime, afternoon or evening.

3 · INFORMATION FORUMS

Information Forums & Resources

Practical and informative sessions led by specialists, leaders and people with lived experience. Explore topics that help you better understand the impact of cancer on work, treatment, recovery and career decisions. Gain trusted information, practical strategies and tools to help you navigate change with greater confidence and clarity.

“Insightful, factual and reasonable. I feel less alone through this regular engagement.”
