

CREATING CANCERKIND® WORKPLACES

Become a workplace where awareness sparks compassion.

Around 2 in 5 people diagnosed with cancer are of working age — and the effects on work, identity and financial security continue beyond treatment. We help organisations of all sizes support employees impacted by cancer, with care and confidence.

SUPPORTING COLLEAGUES THROUGH & BEYOND CANCER

Four ways we help you build a CancerKind® culture.

1

WEBINAR

Start a conversation about cancer

A webinar to spark compassion and open dialogue across your organisation.

- Promote general awareness
- Foster open, confident conversations
- Practical tips for everyday support

2

AWARENESS TRAINING

Support an impacted colleague

Help teams understand the experience and respond with genuine, effective care.

- Understand the impact and complexities
- A guide to effective support
- Insights for a CancerKind® approach

3

LEADER TRAINING

Equip leaders to balance needs

Build manager confidence to support individuals while meeting organisational responsibilities.

- Compassionate communication strategies
- Practical, reasonable adjustments
- Functional support & legal responsibilities

4

ADVISORY & COACHING

Foster a CancerKind® culture

Enhanced functional support to embed cancer-kind practice for the long term.

- Policy review beyond legal obligations
- Alignment with Diversity, Inclusion & Equity
- Leader coaching, conversations & action plans

Being CancerKind® enables your organisation to:

- Retain talent
Keep valuable knowledge and capacity.
- Enhance productivity
Align business and people goals.
- Improve satisfaction
Prioritise organisational wellness.
- Lead through crises
Build skills to lead with care.
